Round Table

SAC proposals for the alteration of Burns Status Square – discussion deferred

Interim Place Plan meeting Update – Attended by Lee and Lynn Stewart, Mary Elliot, Anne Miller, Dougie Smith, the Reverend Paul Russell SAC Kenny Dalrymple and Audrey Gatt

The Ayr East Cap Survey results compilation was completed. Audrey will feedback on the next steps. A discussion around the North Hall at Castlehill Church concluded that Kenny Dalrymple would look further into utilising/upgrading the North Hall for public group meetings. It was commented that the North Hall could be used by FHMCC free of charge for our events. Dougie and Lee will consult with Castlehill Church going forward.

The Place Plan options for Castlehill Woods was deferred to a future meeting.

Community Council Events for 2026 – we will post on our social media pages that the annual August summer event will not go ahead. We will use our online media to ask for volunteers to help with the Halloween walk in Glencairn Park in October. It was noted that there is a surplus of grant funds available.

Any Other Business (AOB)

Local Resident Richard North advise the committee on the ongoing concerns with the traffic issues in the Hazel bank Estate. Richard commented that a response was received from Ayrshire Roads Alliance (ARA) after a wait of 5 months. Richard also commented that repairs to the Ayr & Prestwick areas were not scheduled until 2026/2027.

SAC Link Officer for FHMCC, Dougie will follow this up.

The Chair expressed the Committee's thanks to the outgoing Community Councillors, John McGuire, Allison Fyfe and W. White.
